1 Preliminaries

- 1.1. The Society shall be called “The Queensland University Games Society”, hereafter referred to as “the Society”.
- 1.2. The Society shall be an associated body of the University of Queensland Union in the category of General Society.

2 Aim and Objectives

- 2.1. The aim of the Society is to foster gaming on campus and in the wider community.
- 2.2. The objectives are:
 - (a) to enable members to find opponents and arrange games;
 - (b) to assist in the dissemination of skills and techniques;
 - (c) to offer experience with games of various types;
 - (d) to discuss and compare sets of rules, and produce local improvements and supplements;
 - (e) to promote umpiring and game-mastering techniques, and develop rules and training skills;
 - (f) to encourage, support, and publish research into relevant aspects of history and technology;
 - (g) to provide information on products and suppliers, and where possible arrange for bulk purchasing and discount opportunities for Club members; and
 - (h) to encourage the hobby by seeking new members by means of public displays and games, and by corresponding with other clubs.
- 2.3. The assets and income of the Society shall be applied solely in furtherance of its above-mentioned objectives and no portion shall be distributed directly or indirectly to the members of the Society except in bona fide compensation for services rendered or expenses incurred on behalf of the Society.
- 2.4. The Society shall not adopt aims or objectives that would bring it under the jurisdiction of the University of Queensland Sports Association (UQ Sport).

3 Membership

- 3.1. Membership is open to:
 - (a) any members of the University of Queensland Union;
 - (b) any University of Queensland staff members; and
 - (c) any other members of the University or wider community interested in the Society’s activities.
- 3.2. The Society shall have no less than thirty (30) members.
- 3.3. Seventy percent (70%) of the Society’s financial members must be University of Queensland Union members.
- 3.4. Honorary life membership may be granted to any individual as determined by special resolution at a General Meeting.

4 Membership Fees

- 4.1. The membership fees shall be such sum as the members shall from time to time at any General Meeting so determine, but shall not be less than two dollars ($2) per member per year. Any change in the membership fee shall take effect in the following year of subscription.

- 4.2. The membership fees shall be payable upon joining the Society. The payment of the membership subscription means that the member is considered a financial member of the club for the period of one (1) year, from the first day of March of the year of subscription.
- 4.3. The management committee may reduce the membership fee from fourteen (14) days before the Annual General Meeting until the end of the year, to no less than two dollars ($2) per member, and no less than such sum as the members shall from time to time at any General Meeting so determine.
- 4.4. The management committee may increase the membership fee for certain payment methods to cover costs associated with that payment method, given:
 - (a) the payment method is not cash; and
 - (b) the increase is not more than required to ensure the Society receives the full membership fee, plus a rounding increase of not more than twenty percent (20%) of this cost.

5 Termination of Membership

- 5.1. A member may resign from the Society at any time by giving notice in writing to the Secretary.
- 5.2. Such resignation shall take effect at the time such notice is received by the Secretary, unless a later date is specified in the notice, when it shall take effect on the later date.
- 5.3. If a member or applicant for membership:
 - (a) fails to comply with any of the provisions of the Constitution;
 - (b) has membership fees in arrears; or
 - (c) acts in a manner considered to be injurious or prejudicial to the character or interests of the Societythe Management Committee shall consider whether that person's membership shall be terminated or rejected.
- 5.4. That person concerned shall be given a full and fair opportunity to explain matters and if the Management Committee resolves to terminate or reject that person's membership the Secretary shall advise that person in writing accordingly.

6 Register of Members

- 6.1. The Secretary shall keep a register in which shall be entered the names, student numbers (if applicable) and contact details of all persons admitted to membership of the Society.
- 6.2. Particulars shall also be entered into the register of resignations, terminations and reinstatements of membership and any further particulars the Management Committee or the members at any general meeting may require from time to time.
- 6.3. The register shall be open for inspection at all reasonable times by any member who previously applies to the Secretary for such inspection and a copy provided for the Clubs and Societies Administration Officer each semester.

7 Membership of Management Committee

- 7.1. The Management Committee of the Society shall consist of a President, Secretary, and Treasurer, all of whom shall be members of the Union, and such number of other Officers the members of the Society at any General Meeting may from time to time elect. All the aforesated Officers must be members of the Society. Membership of the Management Committee shall not be otherwise restricted.

- 7.2. At the Annual General Meeting of the Society, all members of the Management Committee shall retire from office, but shall be eligible upon nomination for re-election. The Society must elect a President, Secretary, and Treasurer at the Annual General Meeting.
- 7.3. The members of the Society at any General Meeting may resolve for other Officers of the Management Committee to be non-voting.
- 7.4. The election of Officers of the Management Committee shall take place in the following manner:
- (a) any two (2) members of the Society shall be at liberty to nominate any member to serve as an Officer of the Management Committee;
 - (b) the nomination, which shall be in writing, shall be lodged with the Secretary before or at the General Meeting at which the election is to take place;
 - (c) at the commencement of the General Meeting, any nominations from the floor will be accepted;
 - (d) if in any election there is only a single candidate nominated for a position, that candidate shall be elected unopposed without putting the matter to a vote;
 - (e) balloting lists shall be prepared (if necessary) containing the names of candidates in the order their nomination was received;
 - (f) all single member positions shall be determined by optional preferential voting and any multiple member positions shall be determined by optional preferential proportional representation voting;
 - (g) the vote of every member shall be of equal weight;
 - (h) all elections must be by secret ballot;
 - (i) the assembly will select an impartial Returning Officer, who shall be responsible for ensuring the orderly running of the election;
 - (j) in the case of a tie, another round voting will immediately occur, with only the tied candidates appearing on the ballot;
 - (k) in the case of a second tie between the same candidates, another round of voting must occur before the close of the General Meeting, with only the tied candidates appearing on the ballot;
 - (l) in the case of a third tie between the same candidates, the winner shall be determined by sortition; and
 - (m) any informality or irregularity with the elections must be brought to the attention of the Clubs and Societies Administration Officer within fourteen (14) days of the election.

8 Resignation or Removal from Office of Membership of Management Committee

- 8.1. Any member of the Management Committee may resign from membership of the Management Committee at any time by giving notice in writing to the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect at the time such notice is received by the Secretary, unless a later date is specified in the notice, where it shall take effect on that later date.
- 8.2. The Secretary may resign in the same manner as any other member of the Management Committee, with the exception of written notice shall instead be given to the President.
- 8.3. If a member of the Management Committee:
- (a) fails to comply with any of the provisions of the Constitution;
 - (b) has membership fees in arrears; or
 - (c) acts in a manner considered to be injurious or prejudicial to the character or interests of the Society

the membership shall consider at a General Meeting whether that person's membership of the Management Committee shall be terminated.

- 8.4. That person concerned shall be given a full and fair opportunity to explain matters at the General Meeting. The question of removal shall be determined by a vote of sixty percent (60%) majority of the members present at the General Meeting and must be endorsed by the Clubs and Societies committee.
- 8.5. There is no right of appeal against a member's removal from the Management Committee under this section.

9 Vacancies on Management Committee

- 9.1. The Management Committee shall have the power at any time to appoint any member of the Society to fill any casual vacancy on the Management Committee until the next Annual General Meeting.
- 9.2. The continuing members of the Management Committee may act notwithstanding any casual vacancy in the Management Committee, but if their number is reduced below the number fixed as necessary for quorum of the Management Committee, the continuing members may act for the purpose of increasing the number of members of the Management Committee to that number required to achieve quorum or by summoning a General Meeting of the Society, but for no other purpose.

10 Functions of Management Committee

- 10.1. Except as otherwise provided by the Constitution and subject to resolutions of the members of the Society carried at any General Meeting, the Management Committee:
 - (a) shall have the general control and management of the administration of the affairs and funds of the Society; and
 - (b) shall have the authority to interpret the intention and meaning of the Constitution and resolutions on any matter relating to the Society on which the Constitution and resolutions are silent.
- 10.2. The Management Committee may exercise all the power of the Society to raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the members of the Society may think fit and secure the payment of performance of any debt, liability, or other engagement incurred or to be entered into by the Society in any way.
- 10.3. The Management Committee will take full responsibility for all publications produced by the Society.

11 Meeting of Management Committee

- 11.1. The Management Committee shall meet together and regulate its proceedings as required to exercise its functions.
- 11.2. Meetings of the Management Committee shall be called by any member of the Management Committee with seven (7) days notice. Such notice shall clearly state the reasons why said meeting is being convened, the nature of the business to be discussed thereat, and the date, time and place of the meeting.
- 11.3. The Secretary (or nominee for the meeting) must keep an accurate record of resolutions passed at all Management Committee meetings.
- 11.4. A simple majority of voting members of Management Committee as at the close of the last General Meeting of the members of the Society shall constitute a quorum of the Management Committee.

- 11.5. Questions, matters or resolutions arising at any meeting of the Management Committee shall be decided by a vote, and shall pass with a simple majority.
- 11.6. A member of the Management Committee shall not vote in respect of any matter in which the member is financially interested, or any matter arising thereout, and if the member does so vote that member's vote shall not be counted.
- 11.7. The President (or nominee for the meeting) shall preside as chairperson at every meeting of the Management Committee. If there is no President, or if at any meeting the President is not present within ten (10) minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or if the President has advised the Secretary or other members of the Management Committee of an inability to attend the meeting, or if the President is unwilling to act, then the members of the Management Committee may choose any member of the Management Committee to be chairperson of the meeting.
- 11.8. If within thirty (30) minutes from the time appointed for the commencement of a Management Committee meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting shall lapse.

12 Delegation of Powers of Management Committee

- 12.1. The Management Committee may delegate any of its powers to a subcommittee consisting of such members of the Society as the Management Committee sees fit.
- 12.2. Any subcommittee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Management Committee.
- 12.3. A subcommittee may elect a chairperson of its meetings.
- 12.4. If no such chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the chairperson is not present within ten (10) minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or if the chairperson has advised the subcommittee of an inability to attend the meeting, or if the chairperson is unwilling to act, the members of the subcommittee may choose any member of the subcommittee to be chairperson of the meeting.
- 12.5. A subcommittee may meet and adjourn, as it thinks proper.
- 12.6. Questions, matters or resolutions arising at any meeting of the Management Committee shall be decided by a vote, and shall pass with a simple majority.
- 12.7. A subcommittee may resolve to refer a matter to the Management Committee.

13 Resolutions of Management Committee Without Meeting

- 13.1. A flying minute signed by members of the Management Committee shall be as valid as effectual as if it had been voted in favour of by those members at a meeting of the Management Committee duly convened and held and attended by all members of the Management Committee.
- 13.2. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by the relevant members of the Management Committee.

14 Timing of Annual General Meetings

- 14.1. Each Annual General Meeting of the Society must be held:
 - (a) at least once each year; and
 - (b) within four (4) months after the end of the Society's previous financial year.

15 Business to be Transacted at Annual General Meetings

15.1. The following business must be transacted at every Annual General Meeting:

- (a) the receiving of the statement of income and expenditure, assets and liabilities for the last financial year prepared by the Treasurer;
- (b) the receiving of reports from the President and Secretary;
- (c) the receiving of the auditor's report on the financial affairs of the Society for the last financial year;
- (d) the presenting of the audited statement to the meeting for adoption;
- (e) the election of members of the Management Committee; and
- (f) the confirmation of the minutes of the preceding Annual General Meeting.

16 Special General Meeting

16.1. The Secretary shall convene a Special General Meeting by sending out notice of the meeting within fourteen (14) days of:

- (a) being directed to do so by the Management Committee;
- (b) being given a requisition in writing signed by no less than one-third (1/3) of the members presently on the Management Committee, and no less than two (2) members of the Management Committee, clearly stating the reasons why said Special General Meeting is being convened and the nature of the business to be transacted thereat;
- (c) being given a requisition in writing signed by members of the Society numbering not less than half the number of members required to constitute quorum at a general meeting, clearly stating the reasons why said Special General Meeting is being convened and the nature of the business to be transacted thereat; or
- (d) being given a notice in writing of an intention to appeal against the decision of the Management Committee to reject an application for membership or to terminate the membership of any member.

17 Quorum at General Meeting
